Accessibility

Our Accessibility Ramp, funded by the Community Foundation of Clinton County, is in the back of the Barn with limited parking. You can park on concrete, then use a solid and gradual ramp that leads right into the main level and has easy access to accessible seating options. Please tell your friendly car parkers if you'd like to park in the back and let our Box Office know of any other accessibility needs.

Community Engagement

Because of donor gifts and grants, we are growing the arts in central Indiana through community partnerships like the "Check Out a Ticket" program at the Frankfort Community Public Library, and special preview performances for nursing homes and mentoring agencies.

We're always looking for more volunteers - or Barnstormers, as we like to call them! We will have our Barnstormer Spring Clean Up days on April 18 and May 16. Watch our Facebook page for announcements on other volunteer opportunities.

SEASON 58 IS SPONSORED BY BAILEY TRUCKING

Sponsored by The Farmers Bank

A world premier by Michael J Taylor

Welcome to the German Tropics, a small bed-and-breakfast located on a 4-acre island just off the mainland. Timing couldn't be worse as a tropical storm is set to hit the island on the busiest weekend of the year. Containing all the classic elements of farce, the action moves at a rapid pace, and things only get more complicated as a murderous, escaped convict finds the way onto the island just before the storm hits!

JUNE 10-14 & 17-21

Sponsored by Zachary Confections

by Frederick Knott | Adapted by Jeffrey Hatcher

In 1944 Greenwich Village, Susan Hendrix, a blind yet capable woman, is imperiled by a trio of men in her own apartment. As the climax builds, Susan discovers that her blindness just might be the key to her escape, but she and her tormentors must wait until dark to play out this classic thriller's chilling conclusion. This new adaptation modernizes the brilliant tension of Knott's original play and builds on the 1967 film starring Audrey Hepburn.

JUNE 24-28 & JULY 1-5

Sponsored by Encompass Credit Union

Book by Karey Kirkpatrick & John O'Farrell, Music & Lyrics by Karey & Wayne Kirkpatrick

Set in the 1590s, brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom are desperate to write a hit play but are stuck in the shadow of that Renaissance rock star known as "The Bard." When a local soothsayer foretells that the future of theatre involves singing, dancing, and acting at the same time, Nick and Nigel set out to write the world's very first musical. Amidst the excitement of opening night, the Bottom Brothers realize that reaching the top means being true to thine own self, and all that jazz.

JULY 9-12 & 15-19

Evening performances begin at 7:30 p.m. and matinees begin at 2:00 p.m.

BATHROOM UPDATE

We are thrilled to share that we have begun the first phase of our bathroom remodel. We are tearing everything out of the existing bathrooms and replacing it all, down to some of the plumbing (no more overflowing urinal!) and up to the light fixtures. We hope you will love all of the updates when you visit us this summer. We still have big dreams of a phase two, which will include expanding the restrooms and adding handicap accessible entrances and stalls, but we have a lot more money to raise until that can become a reality!
